THE FIRM

Clemens advises on all aspects of corporate and commercial law and has significant international experience.

The firm can trace its roots back to 1965 and over the years has grown to become a significant mid-size law firm known for being highly qualified and specialised within a number of areas (as described in more detail below).

The firm is constantly focused on providing advice, which is of very high quality, business-focused and pragmatic.

The firm chooses its employees and lawyers with great care and continuously educates and trains them, so that it can serve its clients in the best possible way. The culture at Clemens is open-minded and non-hierarchical and the firm encourages its employees to share ideas and think creatively. Clemens advises both foreign and Danish clients and advises all sizes of companies.

Within the firm's special competences, it advises some of the largest companies in Denmark.

AREAS OF PRACTICE

Clemens is highly specialised within the areas of (i) real estate, (ii) dispute resolution, (iii) intellectual property and (iv) corporate commercial and M&A.

Clemens also has a dedicated and specialised team of lawyers that advise private clients in relation to personal injury, compensation and family law.

Clemens has several attorneys who are entitled to appear before the Danish Supreme Court and the Danish High Courts and the firm handles a very high number of legal proceedings every year before the Danish courts and arbitration tribunals.
