One of the largest full-service IP law firms in China, Beijing-headquartered CCPIT Patent and Trademark Law Office operates branch offices from Hong Kong, Guangzhou, Shanghai and Shenzhen, as well as in New York, Silicon Valley, Tokyo and Madrid. The practice provides advisory, prosecution, mediation, enforcement and litigation services, in relation to patents, trade marks, copyright, domain names and trade secrets, along with IP-related unfair competition matters. With sector specialisms covering chemical engineering, pharmaceuticals and agrochemicals, firm president Chuanhong Long focuses on patent-related prosecutions, invalidations, enforcements and licensing. Providing key support is Zhongqi Zhou, who regularly represents foreign and domestic chemical and pharmaceutical companies in patent prosecution and litigation. Zhou also has extensive knowledge of US IP laws and practice. The second line of practitioners features patent prosecution expert Jianzhong Kang and Gang Hu, a general director of the firm's litigation division. Huiqing Wang and Bo Li are experienced associates.
