THE FIRM

A boutique firm boasting long tradition, based on a commitment to render high quality legal assistance. Its lawyers have practiced litigation broadly for many years, even before the National Highest Courts and the European Court of Justice. Thanks to their experience in all main industry sectors, they provide sound practical and legal advice on a full spectrum of issues, bargaining practices, unions and social security matters (also including different types of pension funds), as well as legal services for all employment- related disputes. The main practice areas are employment law, labour law, social security law, privacy and data protection, commercial law, criminal law, administrative law. Advice is provided to company clients on extraordinary corporate transactions, with a particular focus on labour law issues relating to mergers and acquisitions, restructuring and reorganisations, redundancies and downsizing.

Representations include cases ad actions in Courts regarding either individual or collective contract termination, wrongful termination, claims for higher positions, claims for damages for harassment, demotion, or unsuitable work, and social security issues.

In addition, the firm comprises litigators and advisors in other practice areas than employment-related, who handle a number of disputes and matters, e.g.: landlord/tenant; construction; real estate; products liability; personal injury; infringement of privacy rights; liability arising from contracts and agreements; non-contractual liability.
